

ELODIE ANTOINE

Elodie Antoine is a Belgian artist, born in 1978 in Virton, who lives and works in Brussels. She graduated in 2002 from the sculpture department at ENSAV La Cambre. Working with soft sculpture and installation, she draws on traditional textile techniques and materials such as bobbin lace, embroidery, sewing, and felt, often combined with other substances including glass, cement, or human hair. By diverting domestic craft toward an industrial imagination, she creates hybrid, frequently anthropomorphic forms driven by notions of proliferation and the way an artwork can “colonize” space.

Elodie Antoine es una artista belga, nacida en 1978 en Virton, que vive y trabaja en Bruselas. Se graduó en 2002 en el taller de escultura de ENSAV La Cambre. Su práctica, entre la escultura blanda y la instalación, parte de técnicas y materiales textiles tradicionales como el encaje de bolillos, el bordado, la costura y el fieltro, que a menudo combina con otras materias como el vidrio, el cemento o el cabello humano. Al desplazar lo artesanal y doméstico hacia un imaginario industrial, crea formas híbridas, a menudo antropomorfas, atravesadas por la idea de proliferación y de “contaminación” del espacio.
