

JASON BARD YARMOSKY

Jason Bard Yarmosky is an American artist whose paintings and drawings explore the passage of time, memory, and the vulnerability of the body, often through portraiture and intimate staging in which costumes and masks blur the codes of representation. He earned a BFA from the School of Visual Arts in New York City in 2010, and his work is exhibited and collected internationally. His work has been shown notably at the Brooklyn Museum, Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, San Antonio Museum of Art, Addison Gallery of American Art, Brigham Young University Museum of Art, South Dakota Art Museum, Yellowstone Art Museum, and Huntsville Museum of Art, among others. He has also presented solo exhibitions at Guild Hall, in Bergdorf Goodman's Fifth Avenue windows, at the Huntington Museum of Art, and at the University of Maine Museum of Art. His gallery exhibitions have taken place in Los Angeles, Paris, and Brussels.
